

10/10/12 Metatron Transcript

Welcome I am Metatron. We are pleased to be here this evening sharing our knowledge with you assisting you with your tests and your dreams. We have asked Julie to focus on more global issues and for whatever reason we have been quite specific with these requests. And so we are excited that tonight she is launching our first online global quest.

There are many of you out there that we are finding we have much assistance to offer you as you are open to receiving the energy of Metatron.

There is a special group of you across the world and our intention is to bring you together, because your powers are stronger when you create this connection.

So as much as Julie is technologically challenged we are here to assure her that this global communication will work in the manner it needs to for our purposes. We are bringing people to her to assist her with her technological difficulties and we want her to know that we realize that it can be humiliating for her and quite fussy, but it is definitely worth her efforts.

Please do not give up and we also ask that you encourage and support her as well with your help and assistance. She has a tendency to let things go if they take too much effort. And there is no judgment here only love and spiritual quest.

We ask that you hang in there and that every time that she does this it will get a little bit easier. She will begin to see the benefits and rewards of taking this message on a global level.

Meditation

And so we want to take a moment now to strengthen this beautiful connection you are all creating at this moment. Feel the magnificence of connecting with those outside of your area, connecting with people across the country that we have personally called to be here with us tonight.

It is no accident that you have joined us this evening, we have called each and every one of you specifically to be with us. And we are always excited when you listen and act when you are called.

So I want you to step into this visualization of a grid and imagine taking your place upon this grid. And there are lines connecting each and every one of us together. Feel those lines strengthen, feel the vibrational frequency. Imagine that each and every one of you on this grid is moving into the fourth dimension together.

Moving into that beautiful space of love. Your unconditional love for each other. You are all working together in another time and space and this opportunity to come together across the nation to join collectively for the good of all will greatly help your planet.

You are bringing this new energy into this space here on this planet and combining your energy collectively as we are doing tonight increases your abilities to do the work you came here in light to do. You are all brothers and sisters of Metatron.

You are of my lineage. I am with each and every one of you specifically guiding you into your highest good. Now you are coming to work together for the good of humanity. And we are so pleased.

And now it is time. Time for your questions.

Question 1:

I am not clear about my path. I feel so drawn to energy healing but Past Life Regression seems to hit my heart.

Metatron's Reply:

Thank you for that question. We are happy to see that you have acknowledged the calling and its place in your soul. This is part of the contract that you wrote before you came into this being. Part of your purpose here on this planet is to awaken to remember your contract your purpose.

As a human being you often times get side tracked and distracted. And we are here to help you stay the course and to constantly serve as a reminder that you are here for a higher calling.

Now if you answer that call we are greatly pleased and excited to help you. But know that if you choose not to answer that call there is no exceptions. The only desire is to help you evolve into your highest state of consciousness.

We only desire to help you awaken to the truth. You are a spiritual being anything that you desire you can create when you are in alignment with your powers. And so as you set this intention and put it into writing, the universe is bringing people and opportunities to you to help you fulfill your highest good and remember you have a longing a desire deep in your heart.

It is a like a seed and everyday you water it, it will begin to grow and eventually it will evolve into reality. We have brought you to Julie because Julie can help you with the questions that you have, she can help you find the people and the resources to move forward with your desire. Thank you.

Question 2:

I am studying Sacred Geometry Formation. Do you have any information that could help me grow further in this area?

Metatron's Reply:

Thank You. We want you to know the sacred geometrical forms that you are studying hold a special vibrational frequency that is meant just for you.

Now as you meditate on these forms you will be downloaded special information to help you to move forward on your specific path. There seems to be a bit of confusion in your life on what path to take or which decisions to make or roads to travel. As you spend time in meditation with these geometrical objects it will help you to find the peace and the clarity on your journey that you are looking for.

You are almost there, it is right around the corner. Don't give up. Keep moving forward setting your intentions and being open to receiving for your highest good.

And so we pause for a moment as we disconnect from this energy and prepare for our next question.

Question 3:

Metatron you came to me in a dream last week and I don't understand what the message was for me can you please clarify?

Metatron's Reply:

Thank you. And when we feel you are ready to hear our guidance we will begin to appear.

With the case of Julie she had went to an angel workshop and when she came home that evening her vibration was very high and she was very open to new information, and new energies coming through.

And so we felt it appropriate to show ourselves and Julie some star beings appear as an enormous angelic energy standing just behind her with beautiful angel wings stretched out wide and we spoke softly to her the words "Metatron".

Now we are aware that this frightened Julie, the purpose of the meeting was to let Julie know that we have come into existence. And this encounter caused her to want to learn more about Who is Metatron? And what is this "Being" bringing to her? And that is when her journey began.

And so we say to you we have appeared in your dreams because you are ready to move on to the next level of your existence. And we are here to assist you. We come with love and peace understanding that my name is Metatron but I work within a group of spiritual beings assisting those here on this planet earth.

When I refer to myself, I refer to myself as we. So as not to confuse you, I felt the need to clarify why I often say the term "we."

The purpose of this greeting was to spark your interest in learning more and discovering Who Metatron is? And if you are open to receiving our guidance we will continue with you on this, but it is always your choice and if you choose to shut down and we must share that that is what Julie did. She was frightened at the strength and power of our energy. Then she began to slowly shut down and turn away from us. But we knew that as she grew on the Spiritual journey there would be another time where we would be able to come back in and she would be ready to receive us.

It is always your choice and it is always ok if you are not ready. There is no time in our realm so we are happy to wait. Thank You.

And so we ask now that you all take several deep breaths.

Question 4:

Metatron I could feel your presence very strongly but now I don't feel it anymore. When will you be back to work with me?

Metatron's Answer:

We felt it necessary to take a break from our work with you.

Even though it may feel like we are not with you we have not abandoned you. There was something here on this plain that you needed to take care of and we have served as a distraction for you from issues that needed to be dealt with here.

Again this is a learning experience for all of you here. We do not come here to spoon feed you. And when we feel like you are relying too much upon our guidance we step back allowing you to fend for yourself, because learning and growing occur within yourself.

It is your own abilities. It is not something that is gifted to you it is something that needs to come from within you. We want you to know that we are always here with you in love and in peace. Always shining a light on your circumstances.

You are much stronger than you think, you have much more power than what you are aware of. We invite you to remember who you are.

You are a most magnificent being and your powers and abilities are unlimited.

We are excited to begin our work again with you as there are some new discoveries that you are about to make. They will bring you personally into another level of existence. There are people that we are putting into your life to help make this happen for you. So be patient. Be ready. Be open to receiving your next assignment. Thank you.

Question 5:

My question is about Money, I believe that God will provide. How do I feel reassured and have faith over financial concerns?

Metatron's Reply:

Thank you. And so we would like to remind you of the law of attraction and the principals within the law. When you can stay in faith trusting that God is bringing you everything you need to be safe and secure.

When you are out of alignment and you are in your ego mind and worry about bills, money and finances you separate, you separate yourself from your spiritual self and all that you know.

It is like a wall, blocked.

And so we would like to do an exercise with all of you using the issue that has been brought before us, because there are many of you out there with struggling with money, with financial concerns.

Prosperity Meditation:

So go ahead and take a nice deep breath. Allow yourself to relax.

Now I want you to think about money and pay attention when you think about money.

Is there an instant feeling of fear and lack, not enough?

Or is there an instant feeling of flow?

Prosperity? Abundance? Unlimitedness?

When you become aware that you are in alignment or out of alignment that is where your power lies.

If you are out of alignment we simply take a look again. So now take a nice deep breath.

Erase that image.

Now I want you to step into the river flowing effortlessly freely. Step into a world filled with possibilities.

There is no lack, no limitations, there is an endless supply, of abundance and prosperity.

There is plenty for all. No one is without.

Feel the flow of love in each person as they are feeling safe, secure and connected. Feel this love expand within your body, outside of your body connecting to all that is here and now in that feeling of gratitude appreciating all the provisions of all we need, each of us there is no need, there is no jealousy and envy.

Everyone has the perfect amount of money that they need for them.

Move into those feelings... feeling love, feeling happy, feeling gratitude and now I want you to pay attention to how that feels and how that begins to flow now in your body instead of getting stuck feel the expansion towards whole.

Whole, whole, it is unending, it is unlimited it is filling a space that is yours.

Now connecting and opening up the gates, a portal, before us. And now open the door pushing it wide open and as you do money comes pouring down upon you.

Feel the feeling of money falling down on you. Raining over your soul, your spirit, your physical being .

It is endless and when you think it is enough you can simply close the door or choose to leave the door open. And it can fill you all night long with this beautiful stream, an unlimited flow of money, unlimited supply of abundance and prosperity.

Take a nice deep breath. Allowing that image to dissolve.

Now I want to ask the question "What is the next step towards greater prosperity and abundance?"

Allow that question to become.

"What is my next step?"

Breathing deeply into that allowing your being to be open, allowing the conscious mind to open up to receive the answer. You might receive your answer immediately, it may take minutes, hours or even several weeks.

Every night before going to bed ask "What is my next step? What can I do to move closer toward my goals?"

Breath.

Allowing that question to dissolve. Making sure that you take time each day to quiet your mind whether you meditate or just sit quietly and ask that question. It is in the stillness, in the quiet of the day, that you will receive the answer, because there is an answer.

We are constantly guiding you for your highest good, helping you to get back into alignment with prosperity, helping you to claim your power and evolving into your highest good.

I am Metatron and I have spoken here tonight.
